

Dr Apollo S. Nsubuga-Kyobe; FIMLA, FAFBE, MAHRI, AMICDA, JP

Dr Apollo was the former chair of Future Voices - Nelson Mandela Centre Australia, Shepparton.

An empowering, engaging, community and academic leader always supporting to the next level. A tireless leader, believing in equitable, fair access and treatment of all (respect).

Highly knowledgeable about recent metropolitan and regional settlements. Operates with exceptionally high-level advisory, advocacy, collaborative relationship, and management skills of cross-cultural capacity building and partnerships enhancements.

Has made significant contributions to emerging communities' settlement Australia, higher education knowledge delivery, and research, development, and student career pathways all done with shared vision and strategy. He is an expert in engaging and maintaining institutional networks, research and community development aimed at driving sustainable knowledge growth, capacities development, knowledge creation, enhancement and sharing, social/policy reforms, effective and efficient services deliveries as a change agent.

An experienced international higher educator, multicultural community stakeholders-ship manager, delivering innovation, operating with good collaborative relationship management and business facilitation skills. A La Trobe University graduate, PhD Business Management, and a Therapeutic Counsellor.

Dr Apollo S. Nsubuga-Kyobe FIMLA, MAHRI, FAFBE, AMICDA, JP is also:

- Justice of the Peace (JP) in Victoria, Australia
- Fellow of the Institute of Managers and Leaders (FIMLA)
- Fellow and Executive Member Asian Forum for Business Education (AFBE)
- Member Australian Human Resources Institute (MAHRI)
- Associate Member of the Institute of Community Directors (AMICDA)
- Councillor and Secretary Pan African Australian (Asia Pacific Diaspora Network Inc. (PAADN)
- Vice Chair the African Think Tank Inc. & Member of VAACAP Implementation Committee
- Member Regional Australia Institute, Canberra, (RAI)

- HUME Regional Advisory Council Member (VMC) to the Minister of Multiculturalism, Victoria Government & Board Member & Former Vice Chair Ethnic Council of Shepparton & Districts
- Charter Member of the Brotherhood of St Laurence
- Member of the Africa Day Committee and Co-ordinator AAAA Subcommittee Forum,
- Chair Goulburn Valley African Communities Association,
- Patron, the Uganda Pearl of Africa Victoria Association (Ugandans Association in Victoria),
- Former Vice President of the African Studies Association of the Australasia and the Pacific (AFSAAP)
- Former Deputy Chair D.H.S Victoria Multicultural Advisory Committee (Federal Body),
- Former Board Member of the ECCV
- Honorary Academic, Business School - Bundoora | La Trobe University | Kingsbury Drive, Victoria, Australia, 3086

He has been established to initiate programs founded on the collectively highly regarded 'Ubuntu' Philosophy identified with Nelson Mandela's legacy. The approaches do embrace commitment, inspired individuals, innovation, development of creativity and formative learning, entrepreneurial skills and networking building, engagements including global strategy and knowledge exchange, economic growth, and better utilization of resources.

Dr. Apollo is a strategic thinker and a community builder and active participant in many associations and institutions aimed at developing the society in practical ways.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/apollo-nsubuga-kyobe-4114431a/?originalSubdomain=au>