

Anna Sumaili is a Dedicated and an ambitious 3rd year Law student, who possesses paralegal experience, within various areas of law including personal injury, criminal and employment Law.

She is also a Young Liberal Member and the Vice president of the Young Liberals Club at Deakin University.

Over the years Anna has participated in various leadership programs such as Future Voices Building a New Generation Youth Leadership program and Community Youth Leadership programs for local churches.